WHY MARC

LIVED EXPERIENCE, NOT LEADERSHIP THEATER

Marc has owned Alter Ego Comics since 2003, growing a home-based side hustle into an award-winning downtown business. He has led through tariffs, a pandemic, hiring, family responsibilities, and the constant decisions only another owner understands. After a nervous breakdown and diagnoses of anxiety and obsessive-compulsive disorder, Marc rebuilt how he lives and leads. Today he is a certified Heroic coach, workshop instructor and trainer, and TEDx speaker.
